Quantum Capital Partners has secured a $4.1 million refi loan on an 18-unit, three-story apartment building located in West Hollywood. The loan is for five years at a fixed-interest rate of sub-4%. Quantum Capital's Jonathan Hakakha represented the borrower. Located at 931 N. Alfred St, the complex is conveniently located one block from the intersection of Santa Monica and La Cienega Boulevards, just a short walk from many of the area restaurants, shops and hot spots.
