

Quantum Capital Partners Secures $50 Million Loan to Refinance New Construction in DTLA

Beverly Hills, CA, April 8, 2019

Quantum Capital Partners has arranged $50 million in first mortgage debt to refinance a newly built mixed-used development in downtown Los Angeles. The extremely attractive seven-year financing was fixed at 4.04%. The financing was secured by a non-stabilized 7-story building (over subterranean parking) mixed-use apartment complex featuring 158 market rate apartments over 11,000 square feet of ground floor retail. The loan was fully funded at close with no hold backs or cash reserve requirements.
